The Rev. Lance Henderson—Pastor
Brent Holcomb—Organist/Choirmaster
Melodie Capole—Handbell Director

Grace and Peace to you from God our Father and the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ!

Recently I saw a funny photo on FaceBook posted by one of our fellow OSLC members (Let's call her "Raroline Cazewski"). It was a chair in an otherwise clean room that just had stuff piled up on it. She wondered if anyone else has a chair like that. I know I do! This newsletter article will be a lot like that chair.

1. I want to thank all of you have contributed over that past 3 years to my Education Fund. It needs no further funds. I thank you for your generosity and have enjoyed the experience. This autumn was a bit hectic for me personally, and I haven't had much time to work on my D. Min requirements, but the new year seems to be available to play catch-up. When I DO become the Reverend Doctor Lance Henderson (D. Min., M. Div. M.S, B.S.) ... I'll still let you call me just "P. L."
2. I am so excited about OSLC hosting Classical Conversations this upcoming semester. In December, many home schooling mothers/teachers and their kids came in and got the education wing ready for the new school year. It was a veritable beehive of activity. They will be here on Wednesdays starting January 8. We have been looking for ways that we might share this amazing facility that God has given us, and He has answered our prayer!

OSLC NEWS & NOTES

CHRISTMAS FUND FOR FAMILY

Thanks to all of you who contributed to the Christmas fund for the Saluda River family.

Your donations allowed us to purchase a jacket, outfit, and shoes for the mom and each of the three girls. In addition, we purchased a 3qt.

pot, two skillets, and a set of queen sized bed sheets. A bathrobe and an alarm clock were donated by members of the congregation so we were able to complete their list of needed items!

Because of your generosity, a family here in our own neighborhood will have a merrier Christmas! Thank you!

"WHAT A CROCK!" A RAZBERRIES FUN FOOD EVENT!

On January 11 at 6:30 pm The Hanfland's will be hosting, it's a "crockpot-luck" buffet evening of slow cooker/crockpot comfort food delights! Prepare and share your favorite slow cooker recipe featuring an appetizer, entree, side dish, or dessert and plug it in when you get here! Additional information to follow

OUR CHRISMON TREES

Once again we can sit in our sanctuary and admire the two Chrismon trees Our Saviour Lutheran Church has had since the early 1970s. A recent letter from Dr. Susan McArver, professor of church history and educational ministry at the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, tells of the first Chrismon tree at Ascension Lutheran Church in Danville, Virginia. A member of that church, Frances Kipps Spencer, wanted something other than "icicles, balls, candy canes, and Santas" to decorate trees in the church. Her inspiration, "Chrismons," monograms of Christ, were to be hand-made and could only include the colors of pearl and gold.

Dr. McArver writes, "In 1961, the women of Ascension donated the first Chrismon tree in South Carolina to the Seminary, where the ornaments adorned a ten-foot cedar tree erected in the Campus Union. . . . After that first year, Sunny Anderson, wife of the seminary's church history professor H. George Anderson, [began] working with local Lutheran congregations to create Chrismon trees of their own."

In 1969/70, when Dr. Anderson served as interim pastor at Our Saviour, Mrs. Anderson expanded the Chrismon project here. A group of women at the church had already begun making Chrismons prior to that time, but some of the ornaments did not meet Mrs. Anderson's exacting standards (too much styrofoam). Materials were not available locally, and the group had to drive to North Carolina for necessary supplies. Thanks to these women (and Mrs. Anderson) the results of this project have brightened our Christmas for almost 50 years.

COMMUNITY LUNCH

Our next lunch will be served on Wednesday, January 29th at 12:00 pm. Please invite friends and family to join us.

3. I have had more that a few folks ask about the progress regarding an electronic sign. We have one bid in and have sought two others which are still pending. I expect we will be coming to the congregation sometime in early 2020 with our suggestion.
4. We've taken some time off from our Farming Church work, but will be getting back to it with our 2020 Council. Our last two chapters are "Discovery" and "Alignment". I am not sure what those mean, but I have been pleased with the way the process has blended smoothly with the way we operate naturally here. Our Fifth Sunday worship in the Fellowship Hall is now a year old and sprung out of the Farming Church process. As much as I have enjoyed the beauty of our sanctuary this Advent and Christmas season, I like using the Fellowship Hall for worship. Not only do we get to try some different things, but it also reminds us that Christians gathering together is right worship, not the space they are in.
5. Lastly, so much thanks is owed to our musicians and the worship team for this past season. I know it is not a contest... but if it was... our congregation could win the state championship in our division. Thanks to all who made this a memorable Advent and Christmas!

COMMEMORATION PROFILES

Ruth Nicholson

The Lutheran Church, as part of its worship, celebrates the lives of notable Christians of the past. Our hymnal provides a calendar (pp. 15–17) for us to follow which recognizes these individuals on the anniversary of their deaths.

January 15
Martin Luther King, Jr.,
renewer of society, martyr
(1929-1968)

Son of a Baptist minister in Atlanta, Georgia, Martin Luther King, Jr., earned degrees in sociology, religious studies, and philosophy. After a pastorate in Montgomery, Alabama, King became co-pastor with his father at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta. He studied and accepted wholeheartedly Mahatma Gandhi's doctrine of nonviolent civil disobedience. It was this idea that Dr. King took with him as he founded the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and led a multitude of marches and demonstrations on behalf of civil rights and against both social and economic discrimination. He is remembered for those efforts and for his eloquent speeches, such as the "I Have a Dream" speech of 1963. Dr. King was assassinated during a visit to assist striking sanitation workers in Memphis, Tennessee. In 1983, his birthday (January 15) was declared a national holiday.

January 19
Henry, Bishop of Uppsala, martyr
(died 1156)

English by birth, Henry became Bishop of Uppsala, Sweden, in 1152. Soon after that, he traveled with the Swedish king to Finland on a mission trip. Henry, or Henrik, as he was called in Scandinavia, stayed on to develop the church. He was killed by a Finnish farmer who had been disciplined by the church. Henry's burial place became a destination for pilgrimages, and he is considered Finland's national saint.

January 26
Timothy, Titus, and Silas, missionaries
(First Century A.D.)

All three are commemorated for their association with St. Paul's ministry. Timothy traveled with Paul on his second missionary journey and was given charge of the mission at Thessalonica and Corinth. He became the first Bishop of Ephesus and was martyred. Titus accompanied Paul to Jerusalem and later preached in Corinth, Crete, and Dalmatia. Eusebius' writings designate Titus as the first Bishop of Crete. Silas went with Paul on his first visit to Macedonia and Corinth. He was known for preaching with great conviction.

GRAPEVINE QUIZ

(Answers on page 10)

We read recently somewhere that someone is suggesting Barbara Walters should be in NYC to ring in the New Year. That way, when ball drops she can say "This is 2020!" Of course, when Barbara said it, it was "20/20". And that reminds us about eyes and seeing and vision. So there's our quiz theme!

1. In Genesis 3, after Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit, what is the first thing they saw?
 - A. The snake slithering off
 - B. God walking in the garden
 - C. That they were naked
 - D. That McRib is back, but only for a limited time.
2. According to Judges 16, after gouging out Samson's eyes, what did the Philistines do to him?
 - A. made him push a millstone
 - B. nailed him to a cross
 - C. made him work in the mines
 - D. made him work as a strong man in the circus
3. Fill in the blank from this opening line of Psalm 121. I lift my eyes to the _____, from where is my help to come?
 - A. Heavens
 - B. Mountains
 - C. Hills
 - D. "Help Wanted" sign
4. In Mark 8, what does Jesus put in the eyes of a blind man to restore his sight?
 - A. Mud
 - B. Blood
 - C. Saliva
 - D. Visine

5. Although they are often given the names of Pestilence, War, Famine and Death, Revelation 6 only lists this one horseman of the Apocalypse by name.
 - A. Pestilence
 - B. War
 - C. Famine
 - D. Death

BONUS: Many people worldwide celebrated last month the patron saint of the blind by dressing their daughters in white and placing crowns of greenery and candles on their heads. Who is this saint?

THANK YOU

At this special Advent season, we are reminded of God's greatest gift to us--the birth of his Son, Jesus who was born to save us from sin and give us His salvation. This same love is displayed by the people at Our Saviour Lutheran Church and my family is blessed to be part of this church family.

Pastor Lance, a sincere and heart-felt "thank you" for visiting and praying with me during my recent hospitalizations. God heard your prayers and answered. The prayer of a righteous man availeth much is quoted in the Holy Scriptures.

The food that was prepared and delivered to me was delicious and much appreciated. To each one of you who brought food, thank you so much.

Thank you for every phone call, card, visit, encouraging word, and especially your prayers. You are a special people and I'm forever grateful.
