The Rev. Lance Henderson—Pastor
Brent Holcomb—Organist/Choirmaster
Melodie Capole—Handbell Director

Grace and Peace to you from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ!

Thanksgiving is a weird holiday. No other holiday mixes religion and the national interests. Sure Christmas is a national holiday, but Christmas can be celebrated without the mention of the Christ Child. Thanksgiving stands alone because while we all have our favorite traditions, football games and recipes, there is the assumption that thanks will be given. And it is well understood that thanks will be given to God. That's the thing—gratitude always has a direction.

That is to say if I make a piece of my own art, I really do not have feelings of gratitude. It came about by my own labors. I might say “thanks be to God for giving me such great talent” but that is more braggadocio than gratitude. Now if one comes up to me and says “this is really fine work” I may be urged to say “thank you” because they did not have to take the time to say anything. Gratitude is directed toward another person (s) or to God.

I knew a fellow who had been a believer and then lost his faith in God. He made it through a health scare, and on this side of his ordeal, he said, “I’m just so thankful!” And I thought “to who?! Your lucky stars?” I believe he was truly feeling grateful, but his lack of faith left him without a way to say where his gratitude was directed. Maybe I ought to have called him out, but I just stayed quiet.

I am not sure where I heard it, but I believe it 100% true—It is not that happy people are grateful; it is that grateful people are happy. Enjoy your Thanksgiving. And give thanks to God for all your blessings and for all the blessings He has poured upon this nation.

Peace in Christ,
Pastor Lance

The Lutheran Church, as part of its worship, celebrates the lives of notable Christians of the past. Our hymnal provides a calendar (pp. 15–17) for us to follow which recognizes these individuals on the anniversary of their deaths.

November 11
Martin, Bishop of Tours
(c. 316-397)

Martin of Tours was born into a pagan family in what is now Hungary. At age ten, he decided to study Christianity. During his time as a soldier of the Roman Empire, he found that he could not reconcile military life with his new religion. Martin left the army and joined a monastic community at Poitiers. He was consecrated Bishop of Tours in 371. He led a very active missionary life, converting many non-believers and founding monasteries. Martin was one of the first non-martyrs to be granted sainthood. Martin Luther was baptized on St. Martin's Day and given the saint's name as his own first name.

November 11
Søren Aabye Kierkegaard, teacher
(1813-1855)

Born into a wealthy Danish Lutheran family, Søren Kierkegaard was free from the necessity of earning a living. He elected to study philosophy and theology but did not seek ordination. He wrote brilliant essays which qualify him, in many scholars' minds, as the father of existentialist philosophy and theology. Kierkegaard loved the church but accused it of being hypocritical and straying from true Christianity. Like Martin Luther, Kierkegaard did not propose a new religious system; rather, he favored correction of the existing one.

November 25
Isaac Watts,
hymnwriter
(1674-1748)

Nonconformist minister Isaac Watts is often called the father of English hymnody. He wrote some of his best-known hymns while serving as pastor of a congregation in Mark Lane, London. Most of his hymns are based on psalms and reflect a calm, firm belief. Our ELW contains ten Watts hymns, including "Joy to the World," "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," and "Jesus Shall Reign." Isaac Watts also wrote about philosophy, astronomy, and social issues of his day.

The Elderberries met on October 20 at noon for a light lunch. Brenis Aaron, Saluda River Academy for the Arts Social Worker spoke and shared information as to how the school has changed since COVID. Brenis was accompanied by Sandy Tanner, North Side Middle School Counselor and Kelly Fail, North Side Middle School Career Specialist

The following were elected on October 16th to serve as the 2023 officers:

President — Linda Griffith (803-920-3975 lindagriffith2@aol.com)
Vice President—Isma Boland (803-760-5545 ilbright@bellsouth.net) Treasurer — Ann Satterwhite (803-254-9934 annsatterwhite2@gmail.com)
Secretary — (to be appointed as needed)
Advisor — Sandra Hughes (803-796-9016 smhughes@sc.rr.com)

The Joint Meeting was held on Sunday, October 16 with thirteen in attendance. This was probably one of the longest meetings we've had since before COVID. Discussed and approved were the approval of the current officers serving another term, a budget with some changes, and wording for different committees to be in the Church Directory for 2023. One change will be that Cameron Circle will now be sending the congregation cards as Loleta has decided to retire. Leta has done an outstanding job for the past 8-10 years since Margaret Jumper's passing. It was noted that five ladies will be needed to serve as greeters during the June 23-24 SCWELCA Convention at Zion. A big thank you to Caroline Raszewski for serving as the recording secretary for the meeting. The minutes from May and December 2021 were approved as submitted. Our December meeting is scheduled for immediately following the Worship Service on December 4 to discuss new committee assignments as well as any changes regarding the circle suggestions made during October's Joint meeting. Thank you Lydia for providing delicious refreshments.

Action-Rebekah will be meeting at the home of Loleta Keitt on Monday, November 7th at 10:30. She will serve as hostess and leader. The circle will be providing fruit bags to shut-ins in November as part of their continuing service project for 2022. There has been no change in the Hospitality Team numbers; however it was suggested during the joint meeting that the teams be reviewed for possible changes. Lydia Circle will handle those phone calls and announce new team contacts in the 2023 Church Directory which will take place in February. Rebekah will serve on the Community Committee for 2023.

Community-Lydia is working on a speaker for the OSLC-WELCA Retreat with a date to be announced soon. This will complete their duties for this committee this year. Caroline Raszewski will host their November meeting at her home. They will serve on the Action Committee for 2023.

Growth—Cameron will possibly meet with the Rebekah Circle in 2023 with a time and date to be determined with a combined program/hostess schedule but keeping their respective committee assignments.

The circle officer/leaders will appear in the 2023 Church Directory. Thank you everyone for your continued support!
